

Returning to the Land of Fire I'll show you the power of the Gods

You laugh and live your life although you already know that I'm gonna hunt you Ooooooh... Ooooooh...

Become my slave or die forever, burn in Hell and pay your faults

Your evil minds create new followers, you'll better fear my blade

Arthemis strikes to save us all

Don't give up, never surrender

With arch and silver arrows

She makes the Fire in the sky... Shot!

don't like the fools, I feel no mercy for the tyrants of the World

To let the justice rule I say that I'll kill you and destroy your sons

Arthemis strikes to save us all

Don't give up, never surrender

With arch and silver arrows

She makes the Fire in the sky
