

Master Of The Souls

Arthemis

It started years ago
When my spirit got into
A dreadful world of lies and sorceries
Turning my blind faith straight to Hell

A mystical substance
Gave the power to my hands
To kill, steal and deny my evil faults
Please break this nightmare, stop this growing curse

I'm running through a raw way
Waiting for the Sun to shine
And hiding in the darkness
To cover my disguise and call the...

Master of the Souls
You will be the one
That'll let me start a new life and erase my winds of war
Show me all the ways
To release me from pain
I don't want to burn my soul, I'll pay the price for all.

No way to erase my past
I feel his sight on to my neck
By now nothing more has left to believe in
This is my cry, please let my spirit free

I'm running through a raw way
Waiting for the Sun to shine
And hiding in the darkness
To cover my disguise and call the...

Master of the Souls
You will be the one
That'll let me start a new life and erase my thirst of blood
Show me all the ways
To release me from pain
Giving my soul to you I'm sure to rise up from this scourge
Oooooh... Master of Souls... Oooooh... Oooooh
