

Close to you

Artist vs. Poet

The world is gonna end

Hey girl, can you save me?
Have you seen the news on the internet lately?
The whole world's gone crazy
And it's finally gonna burn us all down
I've been having revelations
Tune in to the New World station
And I think Mother Nature's lost her patience
And she's finally gonna run us all out

And when it goes down
I just wanna be standing somewhere close to you
Yeah

You and me, we're singing
Ooh Yeah (Ooh Yeah)
If the world is gonna end
Trust me, girl you know we
Sit on the front porch and swing all day
Watch the world as it melts away
Ooh Yeah
As long as I'm close to you

And I know it ain't pleasant
But I'm probably not getting into heaven
Girl, if you're next to me that's a blessing
'Cause I know we're gonna party in hell
So for now watch the light show
And wonder how much time we got left in this cycle
Life's a vicious cycle
Shit is psycho

And it when it goes down
I just wanna be standing somewhere close to you
Yeah

You and me, we're singing
Ooh Yeah (Ooh Yeah)
If the world is gonna end
Trust me, girl you know we
Sit on the front porch and swing all day
Watch the world as it melts away
Ooh Yeah
As long as I'm close to you, you, you
As long as I'm close to you, you, you, you

And it when it goes down
I just wanna be standing somewhere close to you
Yeah
I know it's crazy but I'd feel alright
Yeah
If I could just be standing somewhere close to you

You and me, we're singing
Ooh Yeah (Ooh Yeah)

Trust me, girl you know we
Oooh Yeah
As long as I'm close to you, you, you
As long as I'm close to you, you, you, you

And when it goes down
I just wanna be standing somewhere close to you
Yeah

You and me, we're singing

And when it goes down
Yeah
