

Dreaming My Way To You

Artist vs. Poet

I've been away for sometime
And I never could find the strength
The strength to rewind
But it doesn't matter tonight
I will dream you to life

Sleeping days into nights, nights into days
Thinking of all the things that I could say
When I finally see you face to face

Cause I'm dreaming my way to you
Dreaming my way to you

Making our way through the stars
Letting down our all our guards
And no matter where you are
You live loud in my heart

Sleeping days into night, nights into days
Thinking of all the things that I could say
When I finally see you face to face

Cause I'm dreaming my way to you
Dreaming my way to you
