

Fresh

Artist vs. Poet

Lying eyes and flashing lights
I think I've been here before
And you caught me by surprise
I said I'm taking you home

Yeah you
Girl I'm impressed, I wanna bet
It's true
That I'm the best, you never had

Have you ever been around another man like me?
Gets down like me, sounds like me
Have you ever met a motherfucker fresh like me?
Got you on your knees, with your ripped jeans
You
Are you ready for it?
Are you ready for it?
You
Take a shot, lemon drop
Then we rock all night

Now you got your hands on me
I didn't tell you to stop
Somewhere they shouldn't be
I didn't tell you to stop

Yeah you
Girl I'm impressed, I wanna bet
It's true
That I'm the best, you never had

Have you ever been around another man like me?
Gets down like me, sounds like me
Have you ever met a motherfucker fresh like me?
Got you on your knees, with your ripped jeans
You
Are you ready for it?
Are you ready for it?
You
Take a shot, lemon drop
Then we rock all night

Then we rock all night

Then we rock all night

Then we rock all night

Yeah, yeah, yeah.

Have you ever been around another man like me?
Gets down like me, sounds like me
Have you ever met a motherfucker fresh like me?
Got you on your knees, with your ripped jeans
You
Are you ready for it?
Are you ready for it?

You
Take a shot, lemon drop
Then we rock all night

Have you ever been around another man like me?
Gets down like me, sounds like me
Have you ever met a motherfucker fresh like me?
Got you on your knees, with your ripped jeans
You
Are you ready for it?
Are you ready for it?
You
Take a shot, lemon drop
Then we rock all night
