

Let You Go

Artist vs. Poet

There's just no fire left in you
There's just no time for pushing through
And I'm thinking if you only knew
The pain you put me through

You'd back out, back out again
Back out, back out again
Back out, back out again
Back out, back out again

And I wish that I could fake it every single day
But I'm left with the scars from the parts that I can't repair
And I was sure you'd take it all away
But that's just a dream that I had. Now I gotta let you go

'Cause you're making me crazy
And I'm serious baby

And I took the time to look away
And I took the time to turn the page
I'm sick of working every day
To give you everything

Cause you'll only back out, back out again
Back out, back out again
Back out, back out again
Back out, back out again

And I wish that I could fake it every single day
But I'm left with the scars from the parts that I can't repair
And I was sure you'd take it all away
But that's just a dream that I had. Now I gotta let you go

'Cause you're making me crazy
And I'm serious baby

And you know
Oh I gotta let you go
You know, you know, you know
Oh I gotta let you go
You know

And I wish that I could fake it every single day
But I'm left with the scars from the parts that I can't repair
And I was sure you'd take it all away
But that's just a dream that I had. Now I gotta let you go

You know
You know, you know, you know
You know, you know, know

I know
I know
I
