

Medicine

Artist vs. Poet

I think I'm gonna be sick
I'll make the headlines again
'Cause I took mum's prescription with dad's permission
But the pain just don't wanna quit
I think I'm out of touch
With this invention of love
'Cause I saw movie magic and brought up the act
But all that I could find was lust

Oh oh, the pills they gotta go
The doctor he don't need to know

Hey, you're okay
Same shit but it's a different day
Hey, you're okay
Now listen, I can't be everything
It's me or the medicine

I was spending now I'm spun
And I think I'm coming undone
'Cause I had one too many and chased it with whiskey
'Till my troubles were gone
I don't remember you
But you're so nice to wake up to
Well this ain't gonna linger 'cause I crossed my fingers
And I got nothing left to lose

Oh oh, the pills they gotta go
The doctor he don't need to know

Hey, you're okay
Same shit but it's a different day
Hey, you're okay
Now listen, I can't be everything
It's me or the medicine

Hey, you're okay
Same shit but it's a different day
Hey, you're okay
Now listen, I can't be everything
It's me or the medicine

Hey, you're okay
Same shit but it's a different day
Hey, you're okay
Same shit but it's a different day
Hey, you're okay
Same shit but it's a different

Hey, you're okay
Same shit but it's a different day
Hey, you're okay
Now listen, I can't be everything
It's me or the medicine

Hey, you're okay
Same shit but it's a different day

Hey, you're okay
Now listen, I can't be everything
It's me or the medicine
