

Sake Of Love

Artist vs. Poet

Said we were lost but now we're found,
Do you feel any different now?
When the puzzle pieces don't work out,
Quite right, the first time around.

You're just living 'til you die,
You'll love 'til I lover.
In this lonely paradise,
You finally did discover.
Wake up in the night,
To cry, remind yourself.

It's all for the sake of love.
Yeah, it's all for the sake of love.
When you give and you get,
And you mess it up.
That's not enough.
Lemme tell you it's all for the sake of love.

Butterflies are the devils lies,
Cut 'em out, let 'em fly, tonight.
So they can find a place to die,
Because every sanctuary,
Becomes a cemetery.

You're just living 'til you die,
You'll love 'til I lover.
In this lonely paradise,
You finally did discover.
Wake up in the night,
To cry, remind yourself.

It's all for the sake of love.
Yeah, it's all for the sake of love.
When you give and you get,
And you mess it up.
And you give and get and you mess it up.
Lemme tell you it's all for the sake of love.
Love, Love, Love, Love.

And we give and we get,
And we'll have to forget,
Mmm, 'cause we know it ain't shit.
'Cause it's all for sake of love.

It's all for the sake of love.
Yeah, it's all for the sake of love.
When you give and you give,
And you mess it up.
Oooh, you give and you get and you mess it up.
Lemme tell you it's all for the sake of love.

It's all for the sake of love.
Yeah, it's all for the sake of love.
We give and get and we mess it up.
It's all for the sake of love.
Yeah, it's all for the sake of love.
