

Stay Strong

Artist vs. Poet

She sits alone in the quiet of her room
Takes a hit 'cause her father never said he loved her too
The pain escapes with every breath she blows away
Stay strong

He walks by all the picketers outside
While holding onto the love of his life as she cries
They call her a murderer, he's never felt this hurt before
Stay strong

Stay strong for us
Stay strong for us
'Cause the love we can create can overcome all of the pain
Stay strong

She does the best that she can to hide the scars
But long sleeves and make-up, it doesn't get that far
She still finds a way to hate herself every single day
Stay strong

And he lost his friend two years ago
She follows him around every place he goes
He won't shake her memory 'cause he can't bear for her to leave
Stay strong

Stay strong for us
Stay strong for us
'Cause the love we can create can overcome all of the pain
Stay strong

Stay strong for us
Stay strong for us
'Cause the love we can create can overcome all of the pain
Stay strong

They never thought they could be so close to hell
And they never thought they could learn to love themselves
