

To Hell With The Letdown

Artist vs. Poet

I've been dying for this moment,
Now I'm trying hard to make it last
My head is spinning,
Can't believe it's going by so fast

And these days are slipping away
But the memories won't fade

Don't wait for tomorrow
'Cause our time is right now
So let's keep this moving
To hell with the letdown

All the lights are burning out
But we're just getting ready to begin
No reason to call it quits
We'll take this feeling with us 'til the end

And these days are slipping away
But the memories won't fade

Don't wait for tomorrow
'Cause our time is right now
So let's keep this moving
To hell with the letdown

We're not gonna waste it
Just turn it around
So let's keep this moving
To hell with the letdown

And it won't last it forever
We can't hold our breath
If this life is all we have
It's not gonna live itself

Don't wait for tomorrow
'Cause our time is right now
So let's keep this moving
To hell with the letdown

We're not gonna waste it
Just turn it around
So let's keep this moving
To hell with the letdown

To hell with the letdown
'Cause our time is right now
So let's keep this moving
To hell with the letdown
