

Without You

As Autumn Calls

I can't see
The tears... they blind me
I can't scream
The silence deafening
I can't sleep
The pain runs too deep
I can't feel
It all seems so unreal
So it seems
Everything was taken from me
All I want now
Is you... beside me

And I want you now
More than anything else...
When I think of you
There is nothing else...
And when I close my eyes
All I see is you...
And when I cry
Every tear is for you
How can I go on
Without you...
How can I live my life
Without you...

Still I reach out to no one
I want to be left alone
To bask within my sadness
My time is soon approaching
And I can't live without you
Oh, how I wish to be with you
