

Higher Than I

As Cities Burn

father this is all I have all is yours, even my last breath from the ends of the earth, my heart cries “lead me to the rock that is higher than I” you sure don’t need me but for some reason you want me can I become what you’ve meant me to be? father this is all I own my soul finds rest in you alone shelter in my storm you are my life “lead me to the rock that is higher than I”
