

Desperation

As Hell Retreats

-The boy finds no comfort. There is nothing left for him in this world, or so he thinks.

Coming to terms as an insatiable man
After searching for all these years.
It's time to admit of my ignorance;
I will not find her comfort here.
I've wasted my youth searching for lies.
No, nothing can save me now.

With eyes closed, I speculate on what I called my own
Before death decided to play its role.
With eyes open, I realize that this world has nothing to offer
All I have is hate!
This world has nothing to offer.
And I have no faith!
This world has nothing to offer,
So I will forsake my life!
And I will end it tonight!
This is my volition!
