

Inferior

As Hell Retreats

I am mad as hell for your condemns on those who can't even decide what to be like.
Your self-righteousness is giving all the wrong placements for an innocent man.

What makes you think they are inferior?
What gives you the right they're more of a sinner?
What makes you think you are better?

Who do you think you're fooling with your figments of...
Who do you think you're fooling with your figments of power?
Back off of them, it's not their fault.

You don't know how to love - and by that you are a liar. For loving God, but not loving all.

Quit treating them as inferiors and look at their interior.

Back off of them. Back off of them. Back off of them.
