

Deceived

As Hope Dies

With A hope for purity
You offer up your hands and bow your head to your divine one These actions done in vain for your faith is built on nothing But words that hold no weight written by men deceived just like you Willing to sacrifice their lives and live a life according to t hese false writings
I ask of you to turn against this and to declare against his fo llowing
To renounce his throne with all your being for we will set fire to his name
I ask this of you not for myself but in hoe that you may unders tand that Religions do nothing but kill and deceive the innocent Bow to nothing and find guidance from within for we will set fi re to his name
