

Clones

Ash

Now you're a clone
With heart of stone
Synthetic soul
Brainwashed and cold

You're just a clone
Got no control
Forced in a mold
Processed and sold

You know I find it frightenin'
How you change just as fast as lightnin'

You fell from grace
Leavin' no trace
You've been replaced
Your name erased

It's your self destruction
You never listened to my instruction

Shame, shame, shame, shame

Shame, that everyone's the same
I thought you stood alone
We're different from the clones

You were a flash of light
A meteorite
You, unique in time
Now out of sight

For I have seen
Like everythin'
I've had a dream
A prophecy

Now there's no use waitin'
Everythin' is disintegratin'

Shame, that everyone's the same
I thought you stood alone
We're different from the clones

I thought you were the truth
Exception to the rules
But the truth is cruel

Clones, clones, clones, clones
Clones, clones, clones, clones

Hey, now there's no use waitin'
Everythin' is disintegratin'

Shame, that everyone's the same
I thought you stood alone
We're different from the clones

I thought you were the truth
Exception to the rules
But the truth is cruel
