

So the Story Goes

Ash

Meant to last a lifetime of course
So the story goes
And you and I were meant to be
So the story goes

I never meant to cause you harm
Wouldn't want to see you torn apart
But that's all that's left at the end of the day
So the story goes

I never thought I could come to this
Could be so cold
But time will heal all scars they say
Or so I'm told

Only bitterness left in your heart
Disillusionment torn apart
But that's all that's left at the end of the day
So the story goes

Disillusionment torn apart
That's all that's left at the end of the day
So the story goes

So the story goes
