

There Is Hope Again

Ash

You've blown your final chance
Lost your confidence
Your self-belief has failed
Let you down again
Oh now you have nothing left to lose
Watching your dream die
No more strength to fight
Bombardment of your mind
It hits you from all sides
Where's the light that heralds a new dawn

Don't give up
Your time will come at last
Destiny will make sense of the past
There is hope again

Weathering the storm
A thousand miles from shore
Struggling with your past
Too young to understand
There must be a balance
There's still time

Don't give up
Your time will come at last
Destiny will make sense of the past
There is hope again
There is hope again
