Why would I ever wanna lose your trust?
Cause there ain't nothin' in these streets for me

Cause when you're gone away, I feel like everything
Is at the bottom of my list, and all I wanna do is taste your lips on my lip
And ain't no way I'm givin' this love to nobody else, cause they ain't worth
And what we got ain't far from perfect, cause we got ours and they still sea

Cause there ain't nothin' in these streets for me

And I know that ain't nobody out there better for me than you
