Let's Do Something Crazy

I would never let a tear fall from your eyes, no, no no Cause everything you are to me, ohh I could never let you hurt inside You mean so much, and I'm so thankful that you're in my life And I appreciate your love and all your sacrifice Without you by my side, I never could survive I wouldn't be the woman standin' here before your eyes

You taught me strength and you gave me guidance Whenever faith was lost, you were there to find it And all because a mother's love is unconditional With all my heart and all my soul, I wanna let you know

That I thank you, and I love you And I would never place anyone above you Said I thank you, and I love you And I will never ever place no one above you

You have given me life, and I just want you to know That you're the reason I'm here today I will never let go to everything that we share And nothing can compare I thank you, I thank you, here's what I'm sayin'

See, I've been blessed to be raised by a woman so strong Cause even when I did things wrong You would show me just the way that I should carry on You kept me safe, and you protected me with all you had And any time I was in need you gave your very last Without you by my side, I never could survive I wouldn't be the woman standing here before your eyes

Ju taught me strength and, ju gave me guidance Whenever faith was lost, ju were there to find it And all because a mother's love is unconditional With all my heart, and all my soul, I wanna let you know

That I thank you, and I love you And I would never place anyone above you Said I thank you, and I love you And I will never ever place no one above you

You have given me life, and I just want you to know That you're the reason I'm here today I will never let go to everything that we share And nothing can compare I thank you, I thank you, here's what I'm sayin'

I remember wakin' up early monday morning With my new dress, and my new shoes, with the buckles on em And you would kiss my face, and say "I love you babe" And you would be right there to take all of my fear away And when he broke my heart, you said it was hist lost And not to think about, "you're better off without him" Remember when they said that I was never gonna make it You said "it's yours, and all you gotta do is go and take it"

I thank you, and I love you

Ashanti

And I would never place any above you Said I thank you, and I love you And I will never ever place no one above you

See, you have given me life, and I just want you to know That you're the reason I'm here today I will never let go to everything that we share And nothing can compare I thank you, I thank you, here's what I'm sayin'

I thank you, and I love you And I would never ever place anyone above you Said I thank you, and I love you And I will never ever place no one above you

See, you have given me life, and I just want you to know
That you're the reason I'm here today
I will never let go to everything that we share
And nothing can compare
I thank you, I thank you, here's what I'm sayin' yeah, yeah yea h yeah
