

Rain on Me

Ashanti

I'm looking in the mirror at this woman down and out She's internally dying and knew this was not what's love's about
I don't want to be this woman the second time around cause I'm waking up screaming no longer believing That I'm going to be around.

Over and over I try
and over and over you lie
And over and over I cry, (over yaaa..)
Over and over I try
and over and over you lie
And over and over I cry
(I don't know why)

Rain on me
Lord won't you take this pain from me.
I don't wanna live I don't wanna breathe,
till you just rain on me
Lord won't you take this pain from me
I don't wanna live I don't wanna breathe,

See, I don't wanna hug my pillow late at night no more I'm tossin' and turnin' and thinkin' about burning down these walls
I don't want to fuel this fire no more, no more, no more.
See I made up my mind cause I wasted my time, ain't nothing here to keep me warm

Over and over I try
and over and over you lie
And over and over I cry,
(over and over, I don't know why)
Over and over I try
and over and over you lie
And over and over I cry
(I cried, I cried, I cried, I cried, I cried, ooohh...)

Rain on me
Lord won't you take this pain from me.
I don't wanna live I don't wanna breathe,
till you just rain on me
Lord won't you take this pain from me
I don't wanna live I don't wanna breathe,
till you just rain on me
Lord won't you take this pain from me
I don't wanna live I don't wanna breathe

I'm so tired of the rain in my life and I'm so tired of the strain and ain't gonna lie cause sometimes I can't sleep at night and this here it just don't seem right and Sometimes I just wonder why I Almost let my life go by.
Sometimes I can't sleep at night and this here it just don't seem right and

Sometimes I just wonder why I
almost let my life go by (ooohhh...)

Rain on me
Lord won't you take this pain from me.
I don't wanna live I don't wanna breathe,
Till you just rain on me.
Lord won't you take this pain from me
I don't wanna live I don't wanna breathe.
Rain on me
Lord won't you take this pain from me.
I don't wanna live I don't wanna breathe,
Till you just rain on me.
Lord won't you take this pain from me,
And I don't wanna live I don't wanna breathe.
