

She Can't

Ashanti

First off I'm a say it like this
I don't care where she's going 'cause I'm that, I'm that chick
I know I got what it takes
Ain't never been the hardest chick, I'm a particular make
And I ain't tryin to be happy with it
You gotta know how to pizazz, you got the business
You gotta let him know what he got on his hands
And if he tryin to forget better remind his ass
Yea, yea

You told me you love me
You told me you care
You said there'll be no more mistakes
Yea, you said
You said you were sorry
It won't happen again
And you came runnin back
'Cause you know

I got that oh
She can't love, she can't touch you like oh
She won't 'cause she won't fuck you like oh
She ain't got a body like mine
Face like mine, the brain not like mine
Oh no
She can't love, she can't touch you like oh
She won't 'cause she won't fuck you like oh
She ain't got a body like mine
Face like mine, the brain not like mine
Oh no

So you don't have to wait for a million times
Been through thick and thin and everything between the twines
Aye, said I've been holdin it down
You ain't gon find nobody built like me around
I will give you all the respect in the world
No need to keep me on a pedestel
And nobody never made you feel
Like I make you feel, let's keep it real
Yea, yea

You told me you love me
You told me you care
You said there'll be no more mistakes
Yea, you said
You said you were sorry
It won't happen again
And you came runnin back
Time to play

I got that oh
She can't love, she can't touch you like oh
She won't 'cause she won't fuck you like oh
She ain't got a body like mine
Face like mine, the brain not like mine
Oh no
She can't love, she can't touch you like oh

She won't 'cause she won't fuck you like oh
She ain't got a body like mine
Face like mine, the brain not like mine
Oh no
