

My eyes bright in the dark your voice creates the spark that lights the flame
Our world rests safely on the stones around the fire
We need to fall and make mistakes
We offer questions of our life
Inebriate our minds, Light up our darkness
We don't want to survive
Let us fall and die
Reaching for the sky
Were unfocused images, were a blackened hemorrhage
Hoping not to lose ourselves in the arms of this everlasting night
We don't want to survive
Let us fall and die
Reaching for the sky
I lost myself into my shadow
Overrating my illusory will
I was fashioned to dominate from the highest peaks
Free and nevermore enslaved
We don't want to survive
Let us fall and die
Reaching for the..
We don't want to survive
Let us fall and die
Reaching for the sky
I lost myself into my shadow
Overrating my illusory will
I was fashioned to dominate from the highest peaks
Now I am free
I lost myself into my shadow
Overrating my illusory will
I was fashioned to dominate from the highest peaks
Free and nevermore enslaved
