

Beautiful Falling

Lane, Asher

this life keeps bringing me pain I try to leave it but it's coming back to me still the trouble remains what's the meaning if we all just feel the same?

and all that I know
it takes more than this to grow and I fall inside your beautiful behind it all there's peace i'm sure every step that I take gets me closer to the point where I escape just another mistake how much further before I'm about to break

and all that I know

all I want is to find my way not to be afraid all I want is you when I feel like I'm in between myself and me when all I want is you

and I fall inside your beautiful
