

Hold On

Lane, Asher

Hold on
just don't let it go
Is it over by now?

For so long
I wanna let you know
That time- time is on our side

I Go on
Try to find a way
To deal with the pain

Yeah, we're both strong
At least we can pretend
But I- I still feel the same
Yeah I- would fall for you again

When time slows down we can work it out
Sometimes I've found life's too loud
We'll find somehow a world without a doubt
If we hold on for now

Slow down
And look what we've done
Torn to pieces on the floor
Now that you're gone
You found yourself
But I - I lost it all
But thats just the way that we fall

If this is right why does it feel so wrong?
If you are mine where do I belong
Without you?

And all our plans come crashing down our feet
I'm feeling lost, feeling incomplete
Without you
Without you

When time slows down we can work it out
Sometimes I've found life's too loud
We'll find somehow a world without a doubt
If we hold on for now
