

After All This

Ashes Remain

Arms held out proclaiming your hand and fading fast
And fooling around
I cannot live free
Screaming out your name
I can feel the pain
As you take my chains
Now my love, forever, I am free alone
Now I know you'll never ever leave me alone

Empty grave and angels fly
I'm missing you and wonder why
Then I see your face shining with your grace
I don't feel no pain I can't find my chains
Now my love, forever, I am free alone
Now I know You'll never ever leave me alone
This is all I want you are all I need
After all this you're everything I see

This is all I want you are all I need
After all this you're everything I see
After all this you're everything I see
You're everything I see.
