

All your faces

Ashes Remain

I saw your face in the earth and this'll be the last time.
I've learned to find my words in higher things than you.
I see the way you move into all the places I've never gone before.
And I've searched and found the truth in all your faces,
When you look at me.

I know what you want but it's far too late.
And I know who you are and I've seen your face!

I see the way you move into all the places I've never gone before.
And I've searched and found the truth in all your faces when they look at me.

And I know what you want but it's far too late.
And I know who you are and I've seen your face!
And I know what you want but it's far too late.
And I know what you want...
I CAN'T BE!!

And I know what you want but it's far too late.
And I know who you are and I've seen your face!
