Ashes Remain

I saw your face in the earth and this'll be the last time. I've learned to find my words in higher things than you. I see the way you move into all the places I've never gone before.

And I've searched and found the truth in all your faces, When you look at me.

I know what you want but it's far too late.
And I know who you are and I've seen your face!

I see the way you move into all the places I've never gone before.

And I've searched and found the truth in all your faces when th ey look at me.

And I know what you want but it's far too late.

And I know who you are and I've seen your face!

And I know what you want but it's far too late.

And I know what you want...

I CAN'T BE!!

And I know what you want but it's far too late.

And I know who you are and I've seen your face!
