

Broken one

Ashes Remain

It's the way you look at me,
When no one's around.
And the way you smile.
I know that you know, we once saw the light.
You know that I know, nothing is alright.

I don't need you, but I need you to know that I need you
So much.
Cause' I am, the broken one, the fallen son.
Rising to breathe in your touch.

It's the way you look at him when I'm not around.
And the way you smile, when you're broken inside.
I know that you know, we once saw the light.
You know that I know, nothing is ever alright.

I don't need you, but I need you to know that I need you
So much.
Cause' I am, the broken one, the fallen son.
Rising to breath in your touch.

Oh I don't need you, but I need you to know that I need you
So much.
To give back my love.

I don't need you, but I need you to know that I need you
So much.
Cause' I am, the broken one, the fallen son.
Rising to breathe in your touch.

Oh I don't need you, but I need you to know that I need you
So much.
Cause' I am, the broken one, the fallen son.
Rising to breathe in your...
Heart!
