

Fade Away

Ashes Remain

Sometimes I get so afraid,
Or paranoid by the things I say.
I've been know to lose my way.
That's when I fall down again.

Sometimes things get so messed up,
I start sinking in the mud.
You reach down and pick me up.
Dream ahead and fill my cup.

I fade away...

I fade away...

I'm not myself today.
(And I feel great)
I'm in your will today.
(Of guiding grace)
We've only got today.
(One foot in the grave)
Tomorrow'll come.
The sun will shine.
Life goes on.
As we all fade away...

Sometimes I get tossed around.
I find my head inside a cloud.
Silence is the perfect sound,
Perfect piece of mind you've found.

I fade away...

I fade away...

I'm not myself today.
(And I feel great)
I'm in your will today.
(Of guiding grace)
We've only got today.
(One foot in the grave)
Tomorrow'll come.
The sun will shine.
Life goes on.
As we all fade away...

Oh, take us away yeah

I'm not myself today.
(And I feel great)
I'm in your will today.
(Of guiding grace)
We've only got today.
(One foot in the grave)
Tomorrow'll come.
The sun will shine.
Life goes on.
As we all fade away...

As we all fade away...
