

Fervor

Ashes Remain

Sometimes I feel you like a raging storm.
In your power I tremble. And in your arms I'm warm.
In the Light I hear you.
Screaming out my name.
And in this life I need you,
Need you to help me change.

Will you, will you take me further,
Than I am willing to go?
Will you, will you burn my fervor?
Will you embrace my soul?

You're as close to me as the falling rain.
You're as close as my sickness, as far away as my pain.
In the Light I hear you.
Screaming out my name.
And in this life I need you,
Need you to help me change.

Will you, will you take me further,
Than I am willing to go?
Will you, will you burn my fervor?
Will you embrace my soul?

[Solo]

Will you, will you take me further,
Than I am willing to go?
Will you, will you burn my fervor?
Will you embrace my soul?
Will you, will you take me, take me!
Than I am willing to go?
Will you, will you burn my fervor?
Will you embrace my soul?
