

Run

Ashes Remain

I never wanted to be alone.
I only wanted to see the truth.
And it lies in you...

Lay me down and let me go
I've already won
Break my heart and heal my soul
I can't wait to run

I never wanted to breathe alone.
I only wanted to breathe the truth.
And it lies in you...

Lay me down and let me go
I've already won
Break my heart and heal my soul
I can't wait to run

Every time I fall down...
You charge your angels to lift me up...
Even when I chose to turn back around...
You never seem...
To give!
Up!!!!!!!!!!!!

Lay me down and let me go
I've already won
Break my heart and heal my soul
I can't wait to run
