

Separated

Ashes Remain

I can't live with you being gone.
I'm not alright when you're not around.
I can't breathe but life goes on.
And I'm always down.
I know that you can free me,
From this cage I'm in.
I need you to lead me,
Back home again.

Please come back to me now.
And wash away the rain.
Please come down from the clouds.
I can't take the pain.
Please set this prisoner free,
From these velvet chains.
Please come and rescue me.
Cause' I'm the one to blame.

I'm dying on the inside.
I'm cracking up.
I wish that I could hide.
But it's not enough.
To cover this depression that's killing me.
I'm so far from perfection, I can clearly see

Please come back to me now.
And wash away the rain.
Please come down from the clouds.
I can't take the pain.
Please set this prisoner free,
From these velvet chains.
Please come and rescue me.
Cause' I'm the one to blame.

I have got to see you.
I want to touch you.
I need to feel you.
I...

Please come back to me now.
And wash away the rain.
Please come down from the clouds.
I can't take the pain.
Please set this prisoner free,
From these velvet chains.
Please come and rescue me.
Cause' I'm the one to blame.
