

Better Off

Ashlee Simpson

1. The sky is fallin', and it's
Early in the mornin', but it's Okay somehow
I spilt my coffee, it went
All over your clothes
I gotta wear mine now

And I'm always, always, always late
And my hair's a mess even when it's straight

R: But so what?
I'm better off everyday
When I'm standing in the pouring rain
I don't mind
I think of you and everything's alright
I used to think i had it good
But now I know that I'm misunderstood
With you I'd say
I'm better off in everyway

2. My friends keep calling, they say
They say I'm stalling
They wanna meet you now
I tell them hell no, I say
We're trying to lay low
Don't wanna lose what I've found

Things are finally, finally lookin' up
Oh, my feet are on the ground even though i'm stuck

R: But so what?...

Things are finally, finally lookin' up
Oh, my feet are on the ground even though i'm stuck
Even though I'm stuck

R: But so what?
I'm better off everyday
When I'm standing in the pouring rain
I don't mind
I think of you and everything's alright
I used to think I had it good
But now I know that I'm misunderstood

Yeah, yeah
I'm better off in everyway
I'm better off today

The sky is fallin' and it's
Early in the mornin'
But it's okay
