

Bittersweet World

Ashlee Simpson

Tragic.
Everybody tryin to hide
All of those girls
Habits its
Kinda bizzarre when it's who you are
It's trgic that it's come to this
I bury all of my vices
Tryin to keep my head up over it
When everything's whatever
It's the be all end all
And right before we fade away
Call a spade a spade
And You should know
You can tell
It's a Bittersweet world
Why can't we all just get along
In this
Bittersweet world
Everybody's reapin what they sow
In this
Sweet World

Whatever happened to the magic
That was keepin us
The faith that was the on stardust
Now
The hypocrites pointing fingers
With Three fingers pointing right back
And all were left with is [6x]
The foolish pride and the quick fixes
Ya
It's the be all end all
And right before we fade away
Call a spade a spade
And you should know
You can tell it's a
a bittersweet world
Why can't we all just get along
In this
Bittersweet world
Everybody reapin what they sow
in this
Bittersweet world
With closets jull of skeletons
I'm a bittersweet girl
Demons out to get me
As I stand alone

There's a universal bottom line
Everybody's in disguise
Even you and I
Behind the facade tryin to get by
Don't wanna play with fire
Again
There's a universal bottom line
Everybody in disguise

Behind the facade tryin to get by
You wanna play with fire
Yu're gonna get burned
It's the be all end all
In this
Bittersweet world
With closets full of skeletons
Demons out to get me
As I stand alone.
