

Lay Me Down

Ashley MacIsaac

Fireworks exploding
In a 21 gun salute
Fireworks exploding
Angels are crying
Through a crystal Irish flute
Angels are crying
Champagne is spilling
Champagne is spilled
As if a million flowers
Had suddenly been killed
As if a million flowers

For the love that got away
For the love that got away
Naked on a staircase
That we could never build
As if a million flowers
Had suddenly been killed
As if a million flowers
As if a million flowers
As if a million flowers
As if a million flowers
Roulette, roulette, place your bet
Roulette, roulette, cigarette
As if a million flowers
As if a million flowers
As if a million flowers
As if a million flowers
And the last time
