

You Got Me

Ashley Monroe

I lay down to sleep at night
Until the craving for you wakes me up
I reach out to grab you
Gotta have you yeah until I've had enough
And you got me now, yea yea
And you got me now

We can lock the world outside
Close my eyes give in and then we'll fly
You're a secret that I'm gonna try to keep
Until the day I die
And you got me now, aah aah
And you got me now

You always want me
You run straight for me
Down the mountain
Like a raging fire
The storm is coming
I can hear the warning
I know you're a lie
But you got me now, yea
Oh oh, you got me now

I'm getting good at letting these excuses
Roll so easy off my tongue
You're getting good at making me feel nothing
While I'm hurtin' everyone
But you got me now, yea yea
You got me now

You always want me
You run straight for me
Down the mountain
Like a raging fire
The storm is coming
I can hear the warning
I know you're a lie
But you got me now,
Ooh, you got me now

I lay down to sleep at night
Until the craving for you wakes me up
