

Feel So Alive

Ashley Parker Angel

Red lights flashing,
I keep driving through,
31st of December,
Photographs I never took of you.
Yeah, I start to remember,
The broken moments that I might have thrown away,
I don't care, I'll be okay.

Got a way of knowing exactly where I'm going,
But I feel so alive.
Everything is changing, life is rearranging,
But I feel so alive,
So alive.

A payphone calling, it's so hard to forget,
Can you forgive me?
Know I'll never be what you expect,
I'm not sorry.
For every moment that I'm making a mistake,
I bend, but I won't break.

Got a way of knowing exactly where I'm going,
But I feel so alive.
Everything is changing, life is rearranging,
But I feel so alive,
So alive.

'Cos I feel so far, I'm halfway there,
Just over the edge and I won't be scared.

Everything is changing, life is rearranging,
But I feel so alive,
So alive.

How would it be,
How would it be if you could finally accept that this is me?

Got a way of knowing exactly where I'm going,
But I feel so alive.
Everything is changing, life is rearranging,
But I feel so alive,
So alive.

'Cos I feel so far, I'm halfway there,
Just over the edge and I won't be scared.

Everything is changing, life is rearranging,
But I feel so alive,
So alive.

Gonna make it real, gonna make it real,
Gonna make it real, gonna make it real
