

Masquerade

Ashley Tisdale

Hip shaker, dream maker
Heart breaker, earth quaker
I can be anything that you want me to
Coin spender, mind bender
Jet setter, go getter
Changing my getup for anything you choose

I won't mind trying on someone else
I won't mind seeing just how it felt
I might like changing my disguise
To make you happy

Here's my formal invitation
You and me go masquerading
Lose ourselves in this charade and
Is this love we're imitating
Do we want what we've got?
If not I say so what
Here's my formal invitation
La, la, la, la you can be my

School teacher, mind reader
Dream weaver, just be the
One I can count on to play it up with me
Hot waiter, cool skater
Trail blazer, pose major
Naughty and nice
What I know you want to be

You wanna try on someone else
You might like seeing how it felt
Do you mind changing your disguise
If it makes me happy

Here's my formal invitation
You and me go masquerading
Lose ourselves in this charade and
Is this love we're imitating?
Do we want what we've got?
If not I say so what
Here's my formal invitation
Let's go, let's go masquerading

We'll make it fun
When it's over and done
I still want you to see the real me
No more disguises
Let true love decide
If we should be together

Here's my formal invitation
You and me go masquerading
Lose ourselves in this charade and
Is this love we're imitating?
Do we want what we've got?
If not I say so what
Here's my formal invitation

Let's go, let's go masquerading

La, la, la, la, la, la, la, la

La, la, la, la, la, la, la, la
