

Lullaby

Ashram

When you wake up the morning rises with you
And it's not enough
I need you

All saints they smile
Grace is there for us
And it's true delight
I feel you...

I catch the one last breath
In your eyes I complete all my dreams
I wish I'll hold your hand
In your life I can see all my dreams

When you wake up a new day rises for you
And in my desires
I need you

Flies high your smile
The place is done for us
And it's true delight
I feel you

I catch the one last gaze
In your eyes I complete all my dreams
I wish I'll hear your breath
In your life I will live all my dreams
