

Nevermore Sorrow

Ashram

I hear the silence,
I close my eyes,
I want to run like a river flows

I feel the distance,
I stare at the space,
I want to fly to where the wind can blow

Nevermore sorrow, no more pain, no more tears
No more sorrow

I hear the silence,
I close my eyes,
I want to run like a river flows

I feel the distance,
I stare at the space,
I want to fly to where the wind can blow

Nevermore sorrow, no more pain, no more tears
No more sorrow
