

Rory's Radio

Ashton Shepherd

Songwriter: Shepherd, Ashton

I remember wantin' to buy a bottle of wine
But I wasn't old enough at the time
My big brothers, they were, though
We'd load up, and down the road we'd go
We were listenin' to Rory's radio

Y'all, Rory's radio played Hank's "Major Moves"
"Fishin' In the Dark"; doing anything we wanted to do
I was fifteen, but I thought that I was twenty-five
I was dreamin' so many dreams, having the time of my life
I could go anywhere I wanted to go
I was listenin' to Rory's radio

We'd sit underneath Tom Bigbee Bridge
Eatin' on a bag of crawfish
We would drag race down straight-aways on West Bend Road
We'd laugh and joke livin' our lives slow
Listenin' to Rory's radio

Y'all, Rory's radio played Hank's "Major Moves"
"Fishin' In the Dark"; doing anything we wanted to do
I was fifteen, but I thought that I was twenty-five
I was dreamin' so many dreams, having the time of my life
I could go anywhere I wanted to go
I was listenin' to Rory's radio

We're all married now, and we have kids
But don't think that we don't look back and remember when

Rory's radio played songs like "Major Moves"
"Fishin' In the Dark"; doing anything I wanted to do
I was fifteen, but I thought that I was twenty-five
I was dreamin' so many dreams, having the time of my life
And I could go anywhere I wanted to go
So innocent in this big ol' world that I now know
I was listenin' to Rory's radio

I was listenin' to Rory's radio
I miss listenin' to Rory's radio
