

Am I In Love?

Asia

Standing there I've been watching you
All alone Your face says it all
Desperately I need to talk to you
Can you see me Will you answer my call

Am I In Love Or is it the magic of tonight
Am I In Love Or is it the magic of tonight
And will it be right Tomorrow morning

Hold me now I feel you close to me
It's so good, so good I want more
Something stirs Deep inside of me
Face to face as we move My life is yours

Just one kiss Remember this
And it will stay with you Forever
