

I Will Remember You

Asia

Somewhere I'll see you again
These words are true
Inside I carry a flame
It burns for you

Sometimes I reach for you
But you're not there
The place you take me to
I know not where

In dreams, you come to me
I'm never free
For I know wherever I go, whatever I do,
I WILL REMEMBER YOU

Locked in my memory
Your silhouette
The only face I see
I can't forget

In dreams, you come to me
I'm never free
For I know wherever I go, whatever I do,
I WILL REMEMBER YOU

And if I should light a candle
For all the others I've known
No matter how I try
You're there before my eye
And the thought will never subside, forever
I WILL REMEMBER YOU

These streets and these houses
All of the places I've seen
If I run from you, no matter what I do
The fire will always survive
The embers are still alive, and
I WILL REMEMBER YOU

And if I should light a candle
For all the others I've known
No matter how I try
You're there before my eye
And the thought will never subside, forever
I WILL REMEMBER YOU

These streets and these houses
All of the places I've been
If I run from you, no matter what I do
The fire will always survive
The embers are still alive, and
I WILL REMEMBER YOU
