Joe Di Maggio's Glove

I'm always my own guy, I do what I need to get by I believe my way is the only way Flattery is a dull blade So I won't use that to get my point made 'Cause you're far too smart, I'm not smart enough I never answer to on-one, I always walk, 'cause I can't run Hand-to-mouth, and day to day But my pride is killing me I just can't get where I want to be I'm lost, I need someone to show the way

Couldn't see for looking, staring at the sun I had no idea of what was to come

All summer it was only you You were a gift from above Two hearts could only beat as one We could not get enough I've never been completely lost I've never been so in love How did my heart become so soft? Like Joe DiMaggio's glove

I don't like the telephone And I don't much mind if I am alone The right place and the right time Are here and now I live in the moment And I don't say things that I never meant And I won't promise that which I cannot do

I couldn't see for looking, staring at the sun I had no warning of what was to come

All summer it was only you Just the sound of your voice Two hearts could only beat as one I did not have a choice I've never been completely lost Never been so in love How did my heart become so soft? Like Joe DiMaggio's glove

I don't know how, I don't know why All I know now is that I will never be the same again

All summer it was only you You were a gift from above Two hearts could only beat as one We could not get enough I've never been completely lost I've never been so in love How did my heart become so soft? Like Joe DiMaggio's glove

How did my heart become so soft? Like Joe Dimaggio's glove
