

Nothing's Forever

Asia

Last night I roamed in San Francisco
Tomorrow Shibuya is my home
I will be waiting in the darkness
In the pouring rain
And always I'm alone

Walking the streets of New York City
Light years away from where I'm born
I study the faces of the people
While I'm standing in the shadows
Of their final dawn

You know that NOTHING'S FOREVER
It's just for today
Can't live for the future, forget yesterday
And hold on to life, for in moments it can fade away

Maybe I'm following too closely
Sometimes you feel you've had enough
Make the most of what you have today
Just hope and pray, for those you really love

It's just for today
Can't live for the future, forget yesterday

Nothing from nothing is nothing, Amen, so I say

Ashes to ashes
