Valkyrie....

Valkyrie....

Like a mist through the trees
I cross the battlefield
She is born upon the breeze
She comes to where I kneel
There is no doubt. She comes for me

Peace at last, fade to grey
My war is over now
This the price I gladly pay
Surrender to her light
It shines for love and dignity

Valkyrie....

Valkyrie....

See the battle ahead of me
They say creed killed his throne
The one true house that I call home
The place I will be known
Where I belong. Carry me....

Valkyrie....

Valkyrie....

Valkyrie....

Valkyrie....

Now that it's all, over and done
We are as one. Now I see
One blazing fire, endless desire
Just stay with me, Valkyrie

Valkyrie....

Valkyrie....

Valkyrie....

Valkyrie....
