

Enemy of the enemy

Asian Dub Foundation

Open up, open up, open up

Open up

Enemy, enemy, enemy

Enemy, enemy

Bring this

Enemy of the enemy, who?

Enemy of the enemy, what?

Enemy of the enemy, who?

Enemy of the enemy, what?

Enemy of the enemy, who?

Enemy of the enemy, what?

Enemy of the enemy

Me, me

Babylon is really burning this time

My chick is coming home to roost on a Soviet airline

Climbing on the subway, burning eyes spinning head

Walking through the station, breaking into a cold sweat

Is the ticking time bomb in my head or your bag

Have you been snorting white lines with president, gas

Crawling from the wreckage of my tumblin' tower block

Someone else had to finish the job

It was the enemy of the enemy

The enemy of the enemy

He's a friend

Till he's the enemy again

It was the enemy of the enemy

The enemy of the enemy

He's a friend

Till he's the enemy again

Enemy of the enemy, who?

Enemy of the enemy, what?

Enemy of the enemy, who?

Enemy of the enemy, what?

Enemy of the enemy, who?

Enemy of the enemy, what?

Enemy of the enemy

Me, me

Rig a dig

Starin' out the window at 50,000 feet

At the mercy of the skies, no escape velocity

And as your eyes meet my skin, see the terror on your face

Do you want it to stop, put yourself in their place

Where what your life is worth depends on where you live

Too many generations down the line to forgive

If all you knew was total war from every side

You'd have to decide, you'd have to decide

Who's the enemy of the enemy

The enemy of the enemy

He's a friend

Till he's the enemy again

Who's the enemy of the enemy

The enemy of the enemy

He's a friend

Till he's the enemy again

Choose the enemy, know the enemy

Love the enemy, feed the enemy

Sleep with the enemy, arm the enemy

Sell the enemy, bomb the enemy
Choose the enemy, know the enemy
Love the enemy, feed the enemy
Sleep with the enemy, arm the enemy
Sell the enemy, bomb the enemy
Keep your friends close
But keep your enemies closer
Closer, closer, closer
Keep your friends close
But keep your enemies closer
Closer, closer, closer
This is easy, uh, they got a turban
We don't have to know
What's going on in the turban
Just proceed with the story
Choose the enemy, know the enemy
Love the enemy, feed the enemy
Sleep with the enemy, arm the enemy
Sell the enemy, bomb the enemy
Choose the enemy, know the enemy
Love the enemy, feed the enemy
Sleep with the enemy, arm the enemy
Sell the enemy, bomb the enemy
Keep your friends close
But keep your enemies closer
Closer, closer, closer
Keep your friends close
But keep your enemies closer
Closer, closer, closer
It was the enemy of the enemy
The enemy of the enemy
He's a friend
Till he's the enemy again
It was the enemy of the enemy
The enemy of the enemy
He's a friend
Till he's the enemy again
Choose the enemy, know the enemy
Love the enemy, feed the enemy
Sleep with the enemy, arm the enemy
Sell the enemy, bomb the enemy
Choose the enemy, know the enemy
Love the enemy, feed the enemy
Sleep with the enemy, arm the enemy
Sell the enemy, bomb the enemy
