

Tu Meri

Asian Dub Foundation

Tu meri me tera
You are mine and I am yours
Standing together
Side by side
I'm not your shadow
But I could be your guide
Stick with me in this time of insanity
Working together to survive this reality
Without you I don't think I could bear
Belief in myself man
You take me there
You see me as I am
And what I wanna be
The hopes for myself
Yes, you are the key
And when I'm on the mic
I don't have to chat shit
Guns or cars or the size of my prick
Your inspiration makes me rap wisely
Like Tunes for a cold (!)
You make me think clearly
Asian sisters shouldn't hear slackness
But conscious lyrics like Sounds of Blackness
Asian brothers
Come listen to me
Respect your sisters if you wanna be free
I will never forget
The love you have given
Sacrificed for the life we are living
The greatest wealth
That no-one can steal
In health and in sickness
No amount of wickedness
Woulda stand in your way
I will never forget
How you struggled to allow us
To see a better day.
Standing together
Side by side
I'm not you shadow
But I could be your guide
Stick with me in this time of insanity
Working together to survive this reality
