Just Enough

I think I heard you say it. Correct me if I'm wrong. After the fact your love ain't all gone. Wish I had a tape recorder. To lay down all the mess. It seems you forgot the manner you left. How I cried for you baby. Saying freaky don't leave me. Sounds cruel and crazy. But I'm gonna enjoy this 'cuz.

[Chorus] I like to believe that you see that you need me so bad. I'll backwash you your dirty spoon. You've been there so find the stub. And here's a band-aid brand new. For the bruises on your begging knees. You turned around and the time I found. Was just enough for me.

Excuses are your "I'm sorry". To go over and under and through. The wood to see without me you're no good. Funny how 4 weeks ago. Could not spare to throw me a bone. Won't hear me complain how the roles have turned. So carry on baby. Tell me how you need me. Sounds cruel and crazy. But I'm gonna milk this 'cuz.

[Chorus]

Now conversation with you, I won't run. 'Cuz how it came around is so much fun. So much fun.

[Chorus]
